PRESS RELEASE / NOTA DE PRENSA

Camposol opens a clinical lab at the Nuevo Chao Health Center

Along with its social commitment, Camposol opened a new clinical lab at the Nuevo Chao Health Center (in the district of Chao, province of Virú) for the benefit of its collaborators and the general community.

The lab purpose is to widen the supply of health services, as well as contribute to the comprehensive care of a population that is growing fast and that requires appropriate health services.

This opening is part of an agreement Camposol signs with the Municipality of Chao and the Ministry of Health. During 2018, the Nuevo Chao Health Center provided care to more than 6,660 people, which means more than 18,541 consultations.

The new clinical lab shall provide the following medical services:
